Information Wanted.
 Of Moses Lumly, who was raised near Oxford, N. C., by Dr. John Hicks, and sold to Wm. Lumly, of Rome, Ga., at which place he was living when Sherman's army reached there in the Spring of 1864. Also, of Polly Noel, who lived in Vicksburg, Miss., up to the time the law was passed in that State prohibiting persons of color living there. She then moved to Nashville, since which time nothing has been heard of her by her relatives. Address,
RICHARD GRAY,
 my12-3m Box 74, Macon, Miss.

INFORMATION WANTED. — Information is wanted of Daniel Williams (colored), who was sold at Martinsburg, Va., about the time Gen. Patterson's forces visited that place, during the early stages of the rebellion. Daniel was then about thirteen years of age. He subsequently came north and when last heard from was at Boston. Any information concerning his whereabouts will be gladly received by his distressed mother. Any person knowing of his present location, will confer a great favor by addressing a letter to Mrs. Ann Williams, Tanners' alley, Harrisburg, Pa.
